

Who are the missing pieces in the Health Care Platforms?

Addictions Counsellors

Audiologists

Assessor/Coordinators

Dental Therapists

Dietitians

Emergency Medical Services

Exercise/Conditioning Therapists

Genetic Counsellors

Health Educators

Infection Control Practitioners

Mental Health Therapists

Music Therapists

Nutritionists

Occupational Therapists

Orthoptists

Orthotists

Perfusionists

Pharmacists

Physical Therapists

Prosthetists

Public Health Inspectors

Psychologists

Psychometricians

Recreation Therapists

Respiratory Therapists

Social Workers

Speech Language Pathologists

No political party has addressed the retention and recruitment of these health care professionals.

The Health Sciences Association of Saskatchewan (HSAS) represents over 2,900 health care professionals employed in health regions across Saskatchewan in hospitals, emergency services, community health services and home care.